at Amazon's logistics center, the photographs are intended for identification purposes.

how to take a picture?

- take a photo so that the entire face, neck, and upper arms are visible (use your phone)

- choose a white or nearly white background

- do not use props that will cover the head such as sunglasses, cap, hat, etc.

- the min. size of the photo is 800 × 600 pixels what's next?

- send the photo to the email address indicated in the virtual process correct photo

unacceptable photo

incorrect background

too casual

headgear

too far from the camera